Crazy Hair Day
Last Friday was Crazy Hair Day to support children with Cystic Fibrosis. We raised approximately $40 which is a big effort from a small school. The hair doos were awesome. Thanks to the Mums, Dads and Carers who helped to make this a special day at our school.

Family Planning Workshop
This week we held an in service for our parents focusing on relationships and sexuality as it relates to young people with a disability. Two presenters from the family planning section of NSW Health came and gave a presentation as well as answering many questions from parents. It was interesting to note that many of the parents had similar questions. This is such an important topic and it is very difficult to get reliable information about it. It was well attended by parents from our school as well as from other local schools. If you missed it and would like to know more please don’t hesitate to contact us and we can pass on the contact information.

National Disability Insurance Scheme
Kerry Hunt from Aging Disability and Home Care (ADHC) attended our P&C meeting this month to share her knowledge about the NDIS and how families can begin preparing for the future housing needs of their children and young adults. Kerry’s presentation was very informative and she provided quite a lot of printed material to help our families understand the process so that they are ready for the eventual roll-out in our area. Once again this meeting was attended by parents of children from a range of local schools and we encourage these families to work as a team, rather than trying to understand the NDIS and it’s implications on their own.

School Athletics Carnival
Our school athletics carnival will be held next Friday the 19th June. It will begin at about 10:30 on the oval at Ulladulla Public School. We would love to see the students with lots of supporters while they participate in their events. Each student will be in one track event and 4 field events. The students will return to school at about 12:30 at the conclusion of the carnival. We will hold a sausage sizzle back at school for athletes and supporters alike. So if you have some time drop in and help us make it a special day.

The Great Green Community Access Class”
This week ‘The Great Green Class’ should be called ‘The Great Green Community Access Class’. The Green Class have been displaying fantastic listening skills, following instructions to a ‘T’ or should I say ‘G’. Angela and Michael are such good role models when using the Liberty Swing and Genavieve and Jarrah are demonstrating excellent banking skills. Shopping is a breeze for the Great Green Class, who stick together, gather their goods and exit with ease. I am particularly impressed with their road crossing skills remaining safe when out and about in the community. What a team!

Red Class
On Fridays we go to integration at Ulladulla High School. The interaction between the Budawang and Ulladulla students is a beautiful thing to see. While we do take our own work just in case, we mostly try and participate in the lessons that are taking place in the classrooms. On special occasions, when we are leaving we go to the Spotted Frog Café for a hot chocolate. This is a café on the school grounds run by the special education department to teach the students to make coffee. We don't know about the coffee but the hot chocolate sure is good.

Yellow Class learning about aboriginal culture
Yellow class is having 2 birthdays this week. John Stanton turns 8 on Thursday and Liam turns 13 on Friday. The Yellow and Green Classes are going ten pin bowling on Friday to celebrate Liam becoming a teenager! We have also been enjoying our Aboriginal studies with the help of Shane. We have done some Aboriginal artwork and Shane bought in some interesting artefacts. We have also talked about different foods including witchetty grubs!!
